- They are located in town. We have friends in town who had used them. Basically I heard about them from word of mouth and social media. Also, I wanted to support our town.

I'm really, really pleased and I would use them again and wouldn't even get any estimates. It was perfect. They really made it as comfortable as possible, and the price was right around the same as others.

Give this a 4-plus. It was kind of tricky working with a small area, but they had a lot of patience. There was no pressure, and they were very professional and very kind.

Design Builders were a joy to work with from start to finish and have now completed several stages of construction and renovation jobs for us. We might need to do something else now as we miss them...!

Design Builders understood both the specifics of the jobs and our overall taste and goals so often anticipated when we might want to rethink something and were able to make suggestions we ultimately loved but would never have thought of ourselves.
